

Blade of Readers Playing Guide

you

quiz enemy

1. Walk the paper

- In game mode, attack text to select it.
- You can copy, highlight, or comment on the selection.
- In menu mode, attack a sidebar entry to remove it.

2. Beat quizzes

- Read the question prompt at the top.
- Select the answer text on the current page.
- Parry the quiz enemy to defeat it.

Try these embedded notes

The highlights below have real comments attached, so the app should import them.

Messages can mark useful places, jokes, warnings, or summaries.

Hold the Down key while jumping to jump downward through platforms.

Message highlights usually look best on a short phrase.

You can make notes yourself, ask another person, or ask an AI to annotate the PDF. The game only needs saved highlight comments that match the formats below.

Make your own playable notes

Message comment format

`[msg|good|bad]Message text`

good and bad are made-up vote counts for whether other imaginary players like it or not.

Example: `[msg|99|0]Contributions ahead`

Quiz comment format

`[quiz]Question text`

For a quiz, highlight the answer text and put the question in the annotation comment.

Example: `[quiz]What are the paper's main contributions?`

Recommended prompt

Please annotate the PDF I uploaded and return an annotated PDF. Use PDF highlight annotations.

For messages, highlight short phrases or single words, then write the comment in this format:

`[msg|good|bad]Message text`

good and bad are made-up vote counts. Messages that are useful for reading comprehension usually deserve higher good counts, but you should also try to be funny.

Example: `[msg|99|0]Contributions ahead`

For quizzes, highlight the answer text, then write the comment in this format:

`[quiz]Question text`

Example: `[quiz]What are the paper's main contributions?`